

To my Bai

Two years ago at Worldwide Philippines, is when and where we first met,
You were working as a mystery shopper, to help you clear some student debt.
You helped me with my survey forms; the project was finished faster with you there,
We laughed and talked for hours, many stories we did share.
Then on the evening of the 8th of December, at an hour quite late,
We shared our first kiss, just outside my own front gate.
You wanted to watch Finding Nemo and came to borrow the DVD,
You took me by surprise and left me shaking, when you started kissing me.
I'd always thought you were cute, each time I set eyes on you,
I just never expected that you, would also like me too.

All your friends would tease us, saying that together we looked great.
We had to sneak you past my Mum when you stayed round a bit too late.
We'd text each other Good Morning & Night, and talk for hours on the phone,
But if Formula One was on ESPN, I'd be left with the hold tone.
We've had loads of fun, like at Manila Zoo,
I mean there was no way those snakes, were ever going to get through.
You act like a dork around me, and it always makes me smile,
These memories keep me going, when we don't see each other for a while.
I'm always laughing when I'm with you, especially when you get your biceps out,
You show off your abs, and your bikini line, and like to strut about.

I love the way you kiss me, with candy on your tongue,
I love your dreams of being a Champion, driving for Formula one!
I love our quality time together, be it tennis or movie night,
I love it when you hold me, wrapping your arms around me tight,
I love the way you take care of me, cheering me up when I'm feeling down,
I love the way you are always prepared with your bag, whenever you come around,
I know that you'll always help me, if I call you up,
And in return I'll share with you, my last Reese's Buttercup.

Now I know that we've both been hurt, but I want us to make things right,
Please give our relationship a second chance, I won't give up without a fight.
When you asked me to be your wife, I was floating on a cloud,
I shed tears of happiness inside and out and wanted to shout the news out loud.
I know the distance makes it hard, but my love for you is real,
And I can't describe how amazing it was, when you told me how you feel.
I love you more than words can say, let's put what's happened in the past,
I believe that the distance can be overcome, I believe our love can last.
Finally, I want to tell you I miss you and the last thing left to say,
Is I think about you 24/7 and love you more and more each day.

All my love Aissa
